GRADUATING EXERCISES.

The Essays of the Class Were Unusually High-Class.

The exercises of the graduating class at the Normal college last night were as unlike the traditional article as the essays of the six young ladies were unlike the pink bundle of foam and flowers that long held sway on these more or less formidable occasions.

There was no straining after effect, no phrase wrung in for the mere sake of the phrase. As one enthusiastic lady expressed it, "they were just common sense as though men had written them." There was the unusual phenomenon of genuine spontaneous applause, such as would have brought a prima donna out to smile and bow and smile and bow again.

The essays were read in tones audible in every part of the great hall and in a way to do credit to the teacher of elocution. Frequently a telling phrase or an inimitable rendering of a passage brought applause from the audience. And the audience was the best behaved the writer has ever seen on a similar occasion—there was no talking, no noise, no manifestation of weariness.

The exercises began with an excellent class song, composed by a member, Miss Elsie Gwynn, of Haywood. Then came the paper of Miss Margaret McRobert McCall, president of the class, on "The American Woman as Drawn by Her Countrymen," showing exquisite appreciation of the American woman in literature.

Miss Lily Annette Boney discussed "Educational Extension" in a paper showing a close and luminous study of conditions and needs in the state.

"Successful Failures," was the novel title of Miss Julia Dameron's essay. It was brilliant, closely woven and highly original.

In "Heredity and Environment" Miss Minnie Huffman found a subject which she discussed in a manner showing deep scientific study of the problems of life. Her hits at some vices of the day brought laughter and applause from the audience.

Miss Susie McDonald discussed "Immortal Friendships" in a way quite worthy of that excellent subject.

"Uncle Remus and His Son," by Miss Elsie Gwyn was a fine study and appreciative character sketch of the old time darkey—a much better sketch indeed than has often found space in pretentious publications. Miss Gwyn's rendering of the negro dialect was almost perfect, as was that of Miss McCaull in the beginning.

The program ended with a beautiful vocal quartette "Goodnight" by Misses Hanes, Falsom, Barnett and Sims.

The Brockmann Orchestra furnished music between each number. The improvement of the orchestra is so marked and its performances now so excellent that it deserves comment. If the aggregation holds together we shall soon have a really first-class orchestra.

At the A. & M. College.

The literary programme rendered by the college societies of the A. & M. last night was good. The chapel was beautifully decorated in Old Glory and State colors, also was filled to its utmost seating capacity with enthusiastic visitors from far and near, demonstrating that the gloom which hung over this needed institution of learning in its infancy has cleared away. The music of the evening was pleasing indeed and reflects much credit upon Prof. Butler, the musical director and student R. W. Richardson, the pianist. The climax of the occasion was the annual address to the societies by Hon. Jno. C. Dancey, using for his subject, "Youth an Element of Christian Development." His delivery was good and his utterances logical. The program ended with a rousing chorus "Rejoice in the Lord," with the benediction by Dr. J. D. Chavis. The programme arranged for tonight promises to be of much interest.

A Compliment Worthily Bestowed.

Rev. S. F. Conrad, who is in the city in the interest of the trip to Washington, attended the graduating exercises at the State Normal last night. He was so favorably impressed with Miss Elsie Lindsay Gwyn's essay on "Uncle Remus and His Son" that he tendered her a complimentary ticket to Washington on the excursion June 1st. This is a worthy compliment as the essay was popular in conception and thought, and received a most hearty applause from an appreciative audience. It may be truly said that all the young ladies acquitted themselves with honor and credit to the college, and it is an institution of which both Greensboro and the state should be proud.

SPANISH FLEET DESTROYED?

A Special to London Says the Fleets Have Met,

REPORT FROM ANOTHER SOURCE

Says Two Ships Were Destroyed. Situation at Manila—North Coast Quiet—Submarine Explosion.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, May 24—World and Journal correspondents at Manila cable that Admiral Dewey is maintaining a strict blockade and is anxiously awaiting the arrival of troops. The officers and crew of the fleet are in good health and have plenty of food, but are unable to control the Spaniards ashore.

Manillians are entirely without meat and are living on canned goods. An absolute famine is certain within two weeks. More rioting is imminent.

A small Spanish transport vessel was captured yesterday and is now used as an American dispatch boat.

The Spanish report that five hundred were killed and that seven hundred were wounded in the recent bombardment at Manila.

BIG BATTLE REPORTED.

London, May 24—A special which has just been received, says there has been a big naval engagement in the vicinity of the windward passage. The dispatch says that Admiral Sampson closed on Admiral Cervera and destroyed all the Spanish ships.

RUMORED DESTRUCTION.

Port-au-Prince, May 24—A telegram from Port de Paix, which was sent on Sunday evening, arrived last night and says: Cannonading continued this morning. It is believed that Admiral Cervera has divided his squadron, and it is rumored that the Vizcaya and Alfonzo XII have been destroyed.

TROOPS LEAVE CAMP BLACK.

Camp Black, N. Y., May 24—The sixty-ninth New York volunteer regiment left here this morning.

ENGINEERS FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

New York, Map 24—A company of regular engineers left here this morning for San Francisco to join the expedition for Dewey's assistance in the Philippines.

WHERE IS THE OREGON?

Washington, May 24—Officials of the navy department have denied that the Oregon has arrived at Key West. Rush orders have been given for the completion of two hundred rapid-fire guns.

The state department declares that no Anglo-American treaty is contemplated.

SHOCKED OUR SHIPS.

Key West, May 24—A terrible submarine explosion in the Yucatan channel this morning gave the American ships a severe shock. Officers and sailors were hurled to the decks, but no serious damage was done.

SPY TO BE TRIED.

Tampa, May 24—The alleged Spanish spy, Castellanos, will be tried today by drumhead courtmartial.

DISPATCH BOAT ARRIVES.

Key West, May 24—A dispatch boat which has just arrived reports all quiet on the north coast of Cuba. The location of the flagship is a secret. The blockade is thorough.

The dispatch boat scouted the coast for sixty miles from Havana to Matanzas, at times within a half mile of the beach and saw no soldiers. The only unusual incident occurred yesterday when two small boats fired and ran. No damage.

NOTHING OFFICIAL.

Washington, May 24—There is nothing official from either Admiral Sampson, Commodore Schley, Admiral Cervera, Admiral Camari or the battleship Ooregon.

THE MANGROVE SAFE.

Key West, May 24—The Tecumseh reports the light house tender Mangrove safe.

Hon. Hannis Taylor's Address.

The address of the Hon. Hannis Taylor, late minister to Spain, at the University of North Carolina, will be of surpassing interest at this time. Mr. Taylor's subject will be "Our Widening Destiny," and will deal with the inevitable expansion of the United States through the present conflict, foreshadowing for the nation an imperial career. As many of our citizens as possible should hear him.

"THE LADY OR THE TIGER."

Impressive Commencement Exercises of the Normal College.

The exercises closing the school year at the Normal College this morning were strikingly impressive. The hall decorated in college, class, and alumnae colors, the flowers banked at the stage angles, the class of young ladies in white, with men and women of riper years on either hand and the hall thronged to its utmost capacity were the materials. Promptly at 11:20 the speaker of the day, accompanied by President McIver, Senator Butler, Congressman Fowler, Judge Shaw and other members of the board filed in while the audience broke into applause that rang again when the class of '98 appeared. After prayer by Dr. L. W. Crawford, Senator Butler introduced Mr. Lewis and among other things said: "There is nothing in my public career of which I am prouder than my vote to establish this school when I was a member of the legislature." The senator added that if the state must give up either the university or the normal college let the university go. He paid a high compliment to Drs. Alderman and McIver and was gracefully adulatory of Mr. Lewis. Mr. Lewis announced as his subject "The Lady or the Tiger," the tiger in this case being civilization up to the time it was leavened by modern enlightenment. Mr. Lewis has a facility of speech that is a little short of marvelous and while he was making, as Mr. Butler observed, an "impromptu speech without preparation" his phrases flowed smoothly. His use of language is altogether original. It is impossible to report him except verbatim. In imagery, in voice, in gesture, language, all, Mr. Lewis was easy and graceful.

Hon. Chas. W. Tillett, of Charlotte, delivered the constitutions. He has the fierce moustache of a Tartar and does not look humorous but for irresistible drollery his speech was unexcelled and his audience was kept in a ripple of laughter from his very first sentence. If Mr. Tillet cares to speak here again he will not lack for hearers. With al there was much good wisdom in his speech. The Bibles were presented by Dr. Smith in his usual polished and weighty style. Dr. Smith always says what is worth the while. After the presentation of the Bibles the diplomas were presented by Dr. McIver. When Miss Yates received her diploma there was a remarkable demonstration. The applause was thunderous and continued for almost a minute—the expression of honest admiration for a young lady who made her own way through college. The two literary societies have their entertainment tonight at 8:30.

FRANCE CLEAR OF SPAIN.

The Government Aroused by the Feeling in America.

Paris, May 23—Clear evidence is now being offered of a ministerial desire to remove the bad impression created in the United States by the offensive hostilities manifested by certain Paris journals over the Spanish war.

M. Hanotaux is resolved to maintain rigid neutrality and will participate in no intervention without first ascertaining whether the proposed conditions are acceptable at Washington. Further testimony of French official feeling is furnished by an editorial in tonight's Temps emphatically protesting against the alleged misunderstanding between France and America, attributing the hostility shown here to a few boulevard journals whose sympathy for Spain as the weaker party is doubtless felt, but Frenchmen would be glad to see Cuba free; and the French government has done and will do everything to safeguard its entire cordiale with the great republic over the sea.

The French-American friendship, Temps says, dates from the never-to-be-forgotten days of Washington and Lafayette, and the historic past of both countries in a measure determines their relations in the future.

Bang Nabbed Him.

A very funny incident happened yesterday and it is true. A countryman walked into Hotel Jones and tried to beat down the price of a dinner but Uncle Jimmie Jones told him it was strictly 50 cents. So the fellow went and took a long, big drink of ice water and as he was going out Bang, R. J. Reynolds' famous dog, made a dive for the calf of the fellow's leg. Bang had heard the conversation and as the fellow did not register, he though he was doing his duty—Winston Journal.

THE SITUATION AT MANILA

Dewey Threatened By The German Consul.

ATTEMPT TO LAND PROVISIONS.

Spanish Captain to Be Shot For Failure to Return the Fire of The American Fleet.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Hong Kong, 24—The Japanese cruiser Akitsushima arrived this morning from Manila and reports that the captain of the Spanish revenue cutter Callao, which was recently captured by admiral Dewey, is to be shot for his failure to return the fire of the Americans.

Admiral Montijo, who commanded the Spanish fleet, will be court-martialed on the charge of cowardice.

Admiral Dewey is improving the sanitary conditions at Cavite. He has granted permission to the British and German merchants to move from Manila to Cavite and has ordered houses to be placed at their disposal.

Provisions are becoming scarce and the Spanish volunteers threaten to seize the store houses because their demand for arrears of pay has been refused.

DEWEY THREATENED.

Manila via Shanghai, May 24—Admiral Dewey has been threatened by the German consul here. After an interview with Agusti, general of the Spanish army in the Philippines, the consul attempted to land provisions from the German ships.

Admiral Dewey refused permission and the consul declared he would force the landing with the aid of two German cruisers. Dewey retorted that he would fire on the cruisers if they attempted to execute the consul's threat. The provisions have not yet been landed.

The Germans are very friendly with the Spaniards, holding frequent conferences with them. They expect to obtain the Caroline islands at the final partition of the Spanish possessions in the Orient.

The Spaniards are expecting reinforcements.

THE CABLES ARE CUT.

St. Thomas, May 24—All the cables between Cuba and Madrid have been disconnected, and Sagasta's government cannot communicate with Blanco. The St. Louis and Wampatuck on the 18th cut the cables at Santiago and Guantanamo under a most terirfic fire from the forts. One sailor had a finger broken by the frugment of a shell. This was the only damage done.

STILL AT SANTIAGO.

Madrid, May 24—Official despatches from Havana assert that Cervera is still at Santiago. Belief is general that the government is withholding important news from Cuba.

To be Congratulated.

Gilmer township is to be congratulated upon the excellent and economical management of its road fund. At a meeting held on Saturday, the 21st, the treasurer reported on hand and unexpended $504.09, and in addition to this fund is a road machine in good condition.

We learn that this machine will be started to work just as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. There is an advertisement in this paper today for mules to work the machine.

SPRING WEATHER

Weakens The Eyes.

There is no time of the year when the eyes need to be more carefully protected and assisted than this time through which we are now passing. The system is undergoing a change and the oppressively hot weather is debilitating. In this weakened condition our delicate optic organs have to stand the glare of the bright summer sun and unless the utmost care is exercised they may be permanently injured. Apparently continental powers are a bit uncertain as to whether Spanish honor is worth saving.

Day after tomorrow is the time set apart by the populist brethren to "put the democrats in a hole."

Not the least horrible feature of the war is the slaughter which the punster wreaks the names of our admirals.

Now let somebody organize a regiment of Rough Talkers. He will have a glorious opportunity to hoist the Spaniard with his own petard.

Senor Capdepon has declared that Spaniards believe they will be whipped. Strange to say for once, Spaniadrs and Americans think alike.

Our British cousins may be exceedingly friendly to us, but they are not averse to turning a pretty penny by selling coal and steers to the Spaniards for all that.

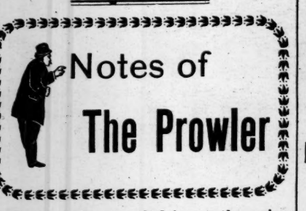
The talk of the Cadiz squadron coming to bombard American ports or to join Cervera and give battle is pure nonesense. Spain will not fight another naval battle if she can possibly avoid it.

The wrecking of troop trains is becoming entirely too frequent. It is a fact that more soldiers have been killed in railway collisions than have lost their lives in actual hostilities since this war began. If the present method of smashing trains is to continue men will hesitate to volunteer, not by reason of fear of the Spaniard, but of being killed on the way.

The French government is now making vigorous efforts to counteract the widely prevailing impression in this country that France is hostile to American interets. It is not all improbable that the efforts of the French ministry to impress this country with its desire to be absolutely neutral is the beginning of a reaction in favor of America. It will take some time to convince the land-grabbing nations of the old world that this country is not fighting a war of conquest. From the European point of view, such an interpretation of the American motive as the admistration is too quixotic to be anything other than ridiculous.

The abortive attempts to bring the Spanish squadron to bay, have brought out clearly a weakness in the American navy—we need more armored cruisers: ships that can reel of 20 knots and give a good account of themselves after the enemy is caught. The fact is the situation is really becoming ridiculous and the laugh is on the Americans. Instead of more battleships that cannot take port in offensive operations, except on the terms of the enemy, we need ships that can make their own terms. It is precious little satisfaction to know we can blow the enemy out of the water when he declines with thanks to come up and "be blowed."

The suggestion of yesterday's Charlotte Observer that the next democratic convention be held here instead of Raleigh is timely. Because Raleigh is the capital of the state it does not follow that all state conventions should be held there. The railroad facilities are better here. Raleigh has but one hotel, not overly good at that, and if the effort is made aright undoubtedly the convention can be brought here. The place of meeting should be changed occasionally. The politics of every state capital are more or less malodorous and, as the Observer has pointed out, Raleigh is unfortunately not an exception. Let us go to work and secure the convention.



The Prowler crawled in at the window this morning and took a seat on the mailing table; he leisurely fanned himself with a blotter a few moments and then spoke as follows:

"I saw Mister Maryon Butler this morning standing in the Benbow lobby looking slicker than a South Buffalo eel. I perhaps, should have said Senator Maryon, but the title does not change the slick appearance of the individual. He was dressed, as the sayin' is, within an inch, or may be an inch and a quarter, of his life, with a long tail coat, with a stove pipe hat, highly polished, and apparently a liberal supply of b'ar oil on his whiskers. His mustache was carefully brushed and every hair lay submissively in its place.

"His face wore the same old shrewd, foxy look, as he stood in the midst of a group casting wily glances from one to another as they beamed and smiled upon him. One of them must have asked him a warm question as he very abruptly, yet adroitly, withdrew and taking the arm of another gentleman floated from the room while a pretty roll of blue smoke from his cigar gracefully curled around his glistening stovepipe, a satisfied smile played 'round his mouth and a merry twinkle gleamed from his snaky eyes.

"I have never seen a fox and a pug in very close friendship, so I instinctively looked around to see if I could find the Honorable Hallelujah; but I was disappointed. While I was looking and wishing for the sight, my eyes lounging for the feast, the wily wizard disappeared and I went away sorrowful."

Certain young gentlemen grew most festive last night. About twelve o'clock one came out of the Benbow and went, thirsting for Spanish gore, down street, howling in a voice that would have made a steam siren seem a mere lullaby by comparison. Young gentlemen should not do such things; it's naughty and besides the night policeman is crusty when suddenly awakened and might bring festivities to an inglorious close.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. SPAIN LOST TO THE POPE.

Statement Made by a Priest at Phoenixville.

Phoenixville, Pa., May 23—Father John A. Wagner, senior rector of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, preached today on "The Duties of a Catholic." He said the cry that had been raised that Catholics were not willing to fight Spain because that country is Catholic is false, and that every true son of that church would fight for the stars and stripes and every priest would go forth and serve his country as far as lay in his power. He repudiated the claim that Spain and Italy are Catholic nations any longer. They are both lost to the true Catholic faith, he said.

So Tired! So Tired!
Chronic Dyspepsia!

For ten years I had been a severe sufferer from chronic dyspepsia, which was pronounced incurable. I was completely run down, and in the summer season was not able to do anything and spent a great part of the time lying down. I could not touch meat of any kind, or any solid food whatever, as I could not digest it at all and had to live on crackers and light diet. I was very nervous, would have severe nervous spells, and could not get any oatural sleep, I was so restless. I suffered all the time from chronic dysentery, which kept me weakened down. That was my condition when I determined as a last resort to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I had tried so many treatments and so many patent medicines without benefit that I had no faith in anything and had almost made up my mind not to try another thing, when Mrs. Person came to my house last April and induced me to try her Remedy. I bought ½ dozen bottles. Felt no relief whatever until I was on the fourth bottle, when I knew I was getting better. I became stronger, got so I could sleep well and there was no necessity for me to lie down in the day time. I took twenty-two bottles before I stopped. My digestion is now perfect, and I can eat meat, vegetables, and anything else I want, and as much as I want. When I commenced the Remedy I weighed 98 pounds, now I weigh 115 pounds. Dysentery perfectly cured, and it is all owing to Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. It is everything claimed for it.

A Timely Product.

The Scientific American has issued a war supplement that is the most lucid exposition of our fighting strength at sea that has appeared. Engravings of all the classes of our vessels are given with the armor, armament, speed, etc., together with a discriminating discussion of the fighting qualities of each. Like everything done by the American, it is thorough and absolutely reliable. Copies may be had at Wharton Brothers book store. Price 25 cents.

General News in a Nutshell.

The father of Adjutant General Corbin is still living at the old family homestead in Ohio. Although more than eighty years old, he manages the farm upon which the general spent his boyhood and where he stopped hoeing corn to enlist as a private soldier at the outbreak of the rebellion. When the old gentleman heard that his son had been appointed adjutant general he was much pleased, and taking a pen in his feeble hand wrote his congratulations. "Dear Henry," he began, "it's a long way from a hill of corn to adjutant general of the United States."

Senator Perkins, of California, is the practical sailor of congress. He was the master of a New England ship, is the head of a firm of ship-owners, and has been all his life identified with shipping and maritime interests.

Here is a translation of a letter written by Victor Hugo on November 24, 1867: "The republic of Puerto Rico has bravely defended its liberty, and I thank the revolutionary committee for sending me the news. Spain out of America! that is the objective point, and the great duty of Americans.

"Cuba as free as Saint Domingo! I hail all these grand efforts.

"The liberty of the world consists in the liberty of every people."

President McKinley has agreed to officiate at the commencement exercises and dedication of the new buildings of the University of Virginia, to be held in June, provided that the state of public business shall permit. At the original dedication the president of the United States and two ex-presidents were present; and that historic fact is to be repeated, if possible, by having Mr. Harrison, Mr. Cleveland and Mr. McKinley assist at the ceremonies next month.

And They'll Scalp Him.

Mr. F. L. Merritt, city editor of the News and Observer, leaves this morning for the front as the war correspondent of our contemporary, accompanying the first regiment. We guarantee no correspondent will do more destruction to the enemy than will Fred, and very little will escape him, certainly not the army. We wish him a happy time and that it will be as safe and we are sure it will be exciting. If he is not scalped for flirting with some Senorita we shall be agreeably surprised.—Raleigh Post.

Keep an Eye on the Sly Fox.

Whoever expects to defeat the Hon. Marion Butler in his own stronghold must rise early in the morning and have a clear brain. Mr. Butler is not only the worst enemy that North Carolina democracy hae today, but he is one of the shrewest politicians in the United States. Watch him.—Norfolk Lankmark.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a secord of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug rtore.

A Word to Suffering Women.

No one but yourselves know of the suffering you go through. Why do you suffer? It isn't necessary. Don't lose your health and beauty, (for the loss of one is speedily followed by the loss of the other.) Don't feel "weak" and "worn out." Impure blood is at the bottom of all your trouble.

will purify your blood and bring the bloom of health back into your cheeks. Each bottle contains a quart.

Your New House
Don't Make a Mistake

which you will ever afterward regret, and fail to make the necessary provision for cleanliness and health. Viewed from the standpoint of comfort, you can better afford to leave off your front porch than you can a bath room, We have everything necessary for gtting up your bath room in the best style, at moderate cost. A Porcelain Tub is so luxurious that it would seem that "none but the wealthy can afford it," but that is not true, for the price brings it within the reach of even a small pocket book,
